

Wonderful Peru 9 Days
 Lima, Cusco, Machu Picchu, Sacred Valley, Puno, Titicaca Lake, Colca Canyon, Arequipa, Lima.

Day 01: Lima - City tour modern & colonial

Transfer in Lima - A transfer agent will be waiting for you with a sign in the Lima airport to transfer to your hotel in Miraflores.

At 2:15pm approximately, we will start with the tour with a panoramic view of the "Puellana Pyramid" a magnificent ceremonial and archeological center built in the 4th century a.d. and considered a "sacred village" by the Incas. The Viceroyalty of Peru was the most important of the Spanish Empire and Lima was its capital.

We visit the Historical Center of Lima, where you will appreciate more than fifty monuments and Colonial edifications, such as the Paseo de la República, the San Martín Square, the Main Square, the Government Palace, the Archbishop's Palace, the Cathedral Basilica, and the City Council Palace amongst others.

We will visit the MUSEUM OF THE BANCO CENTRAL DE RESERVA*, where we will admire the "Treasures of Perú" Collection, a fine selection of objects made of gold, ceramics and textiles from different pre - Columbian cultures. After that, we will continue the visit to the monumental SAN FRANCISCO CONVENT, which displays the largest collection of religious art in America. Our highlight will be the visit of the underground vaults, known as "Catacumbas" or Catacombs.

Then, we will visit traditional residential areas of Lima and Larcomar.

Museum of the "Banco Central de Reserva" is closed to the public on Saturday and Sunday afternoon. Monday closed all day.

Day 04: Tour in the Sacred Valley, Pisac Market, Ollantaytambo Chincheros

At 8:30 am a guide will pick you up from your hotel to begin the tour of the Sacred Valley of the Incas, we will be leaving the city and reach the viewpoint of Taray, from here we can enjoy the beautiful Inca terraces and existing farmland which surround the sacred river of the Incas "Willcamayuc". Later we'll visit the PISAQ Andean market which is very colorful as the local people. The indian market is the best place to shop for crafts and souvenirs.

After some free time, we continue our journey to the village of Urubamba, where we will have a typical buffet lunch. After that, we will continue our journey we'll reach the last living Inca town "Ollantaytambo". Ollantaytambo reminds us of a mythical love story, a drama of love that prevails against all obstacles. It is believed that this city was built by General Inka Ollanta in a time of rebellion against the Royal army of the Inka by preventing its binding to the beautiful princess Cusi Qoyllor "beautiful star".

A further 40 minutes' drive takes us to Chincheros surrounded by the colonial houses, where we will again discover the magnificence of the Incan constructions, terraces and the beauty of the local people in their traditional dresses, all surrounded by the local temple, where we'll appreciate the painting of local people who later where well-known as the creator of the "Escuela Cusqueña" founders. The Colonial church is rich in art and jewelry and well appreciated by their population.

At 7:00pm arrival in Cusco and transfer to your hotel.
